

Guidelines Working Paper Series

Purpose

The purpose of the Working Papers Series is to advance the understanding and support the dissemination of knowledge on all aspects and layers of governance in the public sector, the private sector and society at large. Analysis may be focused on governance issues at the domestic, regional or global levels. The working papers will be made available online, to ensure their swift and timely dissemination and broad spread of novel ideas.

Editorial Board

The Editorial Board will consist of two members of the Foundation Board, the Institute's Executive Director or Director or the Director of the International Centre for Asset Recovery, and the responsible Programme Manager. The Editorial Board is responsible for suggesting, reviewing and approving contributions for the Working Papers Series. The overall responsibility for the development of the Working Paper Series lies with the Foundation Board.

Reproduction

The reproduction of the Working Papers in other publication series, articles, journals or books is subject to mutual agreement between the Editorial Board and the author. As a standard rule, however, subsequent publication in a hard-copy journal or edited publication is welcome.

Disclaimer

The findings, interpretations and conclusions expressed in the Working Papers do not necessarily represent the views of the Basel Institute on Governance.
